

WATER, WATER EVERYWHERE—Even though there are no flood warnings, there is more water in the lowlands than there has been in several years as a result of the heavy rainfall this week. The pictures were taken about 4 p. m. Friday while the wind was howling and there was rain, hail and snow falling and a promise that the high waters would get even worse. Top photo was taken east of Harrisburg on Route 13, looking northwest toward Harrisburg. The flood wall and pumping station are in the background. Bottom photo was taken from Route 45, just outside the levee, looking southeast.

Total of 45 Deaths

Storm Dying Out After Lashing Nation with Gales and Tornadoes

By United Press

The spring storm that ravaged most of the nation with deadly tornadoes and high gales appeared to be dying out today.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Chicago reported the letup but said it was accompanied by steep jumps and drops in the mercury columns.

The expiring lash of the storm's tail, however, snapped at the eastern half of the nation Friday night. Winds of 90 mph velocity howled down Toledo, Ohio streets, lifted a Lakes freighter from its moorings and wrenched out at least 50 power lines.

A United Press tally revealed a total of 45 weather-caused deaths during the past week.

Tornadoes were responsible for 19 of these fatalities. There were 11 in Texas, five in Oklahoma, two in Georgia and one in Mississippi. Blizzard and storms killed five persons in Colorado, three each in Illinois and Indiana, two in Mississippi, South Dakota, Missouri, Nebraska and Wisconsin, and one in Texas, Ohio, Iowa, Minnesota and Utah.

The storm front which touched off the twisters throughout the South finally moved off into the Atlantic Friday. North Carolina suffered from swollen streams as well as from wind and storm damage. Mountain rivers in the West, bloated with more than four inches of rain, posed a serious threat in the state. But reports indicated the water level was dropping slowly today.

Part of the storm gave a departing swat to the Ohio Valley. The Ohio State Highway Patrol reported sections of 31 highways under water. A flood was narrowly averted when a small dam at West Carrollton, Ohio, broke. Water was safely diverted in a canal, however, by an emergency gate, protecting Miamisburg from the flood.

Lebanon is First Arab State to Approve Eisenhower Doctrine

By United Press

The tiny Mediterranean nation of Lebanon today became the first Arab state to give parliamentary approval of the Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East.

By a 30-2 vote the Lebanese legislature endorsed the March 16 action of its government in wholeheartedly accepting the U. S. plan to combat Communist infiltration in Middle Eastern countries.

The parliamentary action prompted the resignations of four members who protested Lebanon was turning its back on concerted action with other Arab states.

But Lebanon, half Christian and half Moslem, is the most westernized of the Arab nations and the protest was not likely to have any great effect on the government.

Another report of disunity among the Arab nations came from Amman. Diplomatic sources in Jerusalem said King Hussein of Jordan has served notice on Egypt, Syria and Saudi Arabia that unless they honor their obligations to replace Britain's annual subsidy he will accept American aid.

On the other side of the ledger a joint Egyptian-Sudanese communique issued in Cairo said Sudan had endorsed Egypt's policy of "positive neutrality" and non-alignment with either the East or the West.

U. N. Assistant Secretary General Ralph Bunche left for U. N. headquarters in New York today with a report to his boss on the success of the U. N. Emergency Force in preventing a new Middle East conflict.

He gave reporters the impression his job was strictly to survey the operation and execute decisions made by Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. He said he had made no "agreements" with Egyptian officials.

In Washington, U. S. officials said that if Egypt does not permit Israeli ships to use the Suez Canal it could lead to another outbreak of war.

Eldorado Soldier is Injured in Vehicle Crash in Ethiopia

Specialist 2-c Paul Coomes Jr., son of Mrs. William Kilgour of Eldorado, was injured seriously in a motor vehicle crash in Ethiopia, his mother has been informed.

A telegram said he has been transferred to an Air Force hospital in Germany for specialized Neurosurgical care.

Coomes has been in the service about 12 years.

Arrest Eldorado Native on Bank Robbery Charge

ELDORADO, Ill.—An Eldorado native, Lyman Austin Moore, 26, held on a Wisconsin bank robbery charge, will be arraigned in federal court at Madison, Wis., April 9 in connection with the robbery of the Bank of Milton.

Moore, a Chicago steelworker, obtained $17,400 in the robbery, according to the complaint filed before U. S. Commissioner William H. Dougherty. He was arrested at Santa Monica, Calif.

Officers charge Moore met teller John Misner at the front door of the bank, forced him to stuff the money into a suitcase Moore was carrying, then taped Misner's hands and fled.

The FBI said Moore was released in July, 1955, from Illinois state prison after serving time for larceny.

Moore in 1942 was arrested in Saline county on a petit larceny charge and placed on probation in custody of his father, Virgil Moore of Eldorado. In 1946 he was sent to the Illinois School for Boys at St. Charles, Ill., on an auto theft charge but escaped, being recaptured at Terre Haute, Ind.

He was sentenced to five years in the Pontiac branch of the Illinois state prisons for larceny in January, 1947, but later was transferred to Joliet penitentiary, where he was released in 1955.

Revise Crest for Shawneetown to 42 Feet April 16

A new crest forecast, revised upwardly, has been received for the Ohio river at Shawneetown by Harrison Kibler.

The new forecast, which came from the U. S. Weather Bureau at Evansville, predicts a crest of 42 feet on April 16. This would put four feet of water in the lowlands in the area of the river.

Middle Fork creek crested at 22.32 feet at 2:30 p. m. yesterday east of Harrisburg, Kibler reported, and had fallen .78 feet to 21.54 at 7 a. m. today.

He said pumping of water from inside the flood wall would be continued today.

Rainfall between 7 a. m. yesterday and 7 a. m. today was 0.5 inch.

County Board To Organize Tuesday, April 9

The organization meeting of the new Saline County Board of Supervisors will be held at 10 a. m. Tuesday, April 9, it was announced today in the office of County Clerk Don B. Garrison.

Garrison issued the call for the meeting after a petition signed by a number of board members was presented asking for the call, a regular procedure following the township elections.

At this meeting a chairman will be elected and committees appointed.

The board is composed of 12 Republicans and 10 Democrats. Prior to Tuesday's election there were 14 Republicans and eight Democrats but the Democratic party picked up two seats in Harrisburg township.

The makeup of the board at present:

Republicans: Virgil Ferrell, Charles Skaggs, Ewell Winkelman and James Land of Harrisburg township; Raymond E. Field and Charles Pritchett of Carrier Mills township; William Alfred Smith of Galatia township; Kenneth Jackson of Long Branch township; Howard Patterson of Tate township; C. L. Blackman of Stonefort township; A. K. Gates of Cottage township and Herman McFarlin of Independence township.

Democrats: Grover Dale Fulker and Dr. John D. Slight of Harrisburg township; Aubrey Giles, Tom Maxwell, Roy Moore and Ivan Wilson of Eldorado township; Claude Moore of Mountain township; Bert Gogue of Brushy township; Lee Porter of Rector township; and Bert Jones of Raleigh township.

Of these, Patterson, Blackman, McFarlin, Giles, Maxwell, Moore, Wilson, Moore, Jones and Gates are holdovers. Board members re-elected were Ferrell, Skaggs, Field, Pritchett, Jackson, Smith and Porter.

She is survived by six children, Joe Basham, Harrisburg, Waldo Basham of Chicago, Mrs. Ava Bastgen and Mrs. Mary Hamersley of Raleigh, Mrs. Virgie Swan of Pontiac, Mich., and Mrs. Ben Sisk. She leaves four step-children, Jesse Basham and Mrs. Eunice Baird of California, and Mrs. Vena Jeffrey and Mrs. Leva Bowman of Aurora. There are four brothers surviving, Walter Deitz and Will Deitz of Neeleyville, Mo., Alva Deitz of Detroit, Mich., and France Deitz of St. Louis, Mo. There are also 21 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren surviving.

The body is in the care of the Turner funeral home pending funeral arrangements.

Expect House Group to Grant Postal Funds

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congress today appeared ready to loosen the national purse strings next week to keep Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield from drastically cutting postal service.

Summerfield has in effect given the House Appropriations Committee a week of grace to give his department an emergency 47 million dollars appropriation or take responsibility for causing the service cuts.

The committee, which only wanted to give him 17 million dollars, was expected to capitulate under the mounting public pressure. It scheduled a meeting next Friday to decide what to do.

Summerfield had been expected to issue the orders effective today to curtail service including a stop to all Saturday mail deliveries and Saturday post office window service. But late Friday he scheduled the cutback for next Saturday.

Denies "Week's Grace"

He insisted at a news conference that he was not giving Congress "a week's grace" to give him the money.

But he acted after the Appropriations Committee decided to give him the 17 million dollars and promised to consider the other 30 million dollars next Friday. He also said the cutback would be called off if the committee action is "favorable."

Committee member John J. Rooney (D-NY) predicted the committee would approve all or almost all of the 47 million dollars. He said Friday's voting indicated that. But Rooney indicated the hard feelings against Summerfield would not soon subside. Summerfield has been accused of "sandbagging" Congress and "holding a gun" at its head.

Summerfield said the increased volume of mail and the expansion of service to nearly one million new homes accounts for much of the drain on post office funds. In addition, he said postal pay increases were voted by Congress after the new budget went into effect last year.

Father Protests

Pentagon Promises Sympathy In Notifying Parents of Deaths

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Pentagon promised today to be more sympathetic in the future when informing parents of the tragic news that a son or daughter has died in the service of his country.

The Pentagon reacted immediately after a grieving father said he would protest to Congress and to Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson about the "crude and heartless" manner in which he was notified of the death of his Marine son in a plane crash Wednesday at Cherry Point, N. C.

A Pentagon spokesman said Wilson and his top officials would deal promptly with the matter to see that it doesn't happen again. Stanley R. Fortuna, member of the Board of Selectmen of Fairfield, Conn., expressed resentment and hurt over a telegram he received telling him of the death of his 22-year-old son, Lt. Richard Fortuna.

He said the telegram — from Maj. Gen. J. C. Munn, commanding general of the Cherry Point Marine Aircraft Wing — expressed regret, gave tentative funeral arrangements, and said the government would allow him $125 to bury his son.

Find $53,600 Cash in Box of Suspended Cop

CHICAGO (UP)—State officials investigating the Hodge scandal continued their search for 16 stolen warrants today after opening the safe deposit box of a suspended Chicago policeman and finding nothing but cash—$53,600.

State's Attorney of Sangamon County, J. Waldo Ackerman Jr. had the safe deposit boxes of William D. Lydon and Edward A. Hintz drilled open Friday on warrants issued by Circuit Judge Clem Smith of Sangamon County.

Lydon's box contained nothing but $53,600 in bills ranging from $5 to $100 in denomination. The money was immediately impounded as possible state property.

The suspended policeman is under indictment in Sangamon County for conspiracy to assist the now-imprisoned Orville Hodge in his swindle of the State Treasury. Lydon is also a defendant in the state's suit of $1,024,000 against Hodge and others involved in the scandal. The amount represents the total of fraudulent state warrants.

The box of Edward A. Hintz, former head of the Southmoor Bank, Chicago, where Hodge cashed many of his phony checks was also opened. It contained only some legal papers and an old watch.

Both boxes were in the Southmoor bank, where the discredited and imprisoned Hintz was president at the time ex-auditor Hodge cashed many of his warrants.

Baby Survives Rare Operation

CLEVELAND (UP)—The two-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Newton was reported recovering today from a rare heart operation correcting a circulatory defect that threatened his life since birth.

The four hour operation was performed at City Hospital here Friday by Dr. F. A. Simeone, chief of surgery, on Charles Bernard Newton Jr.

The operation corrected a "patent ductus," or condition in which an artery leading to the heart fails to close soon after birth.

Surgeons severed the artery at one point, then closed it with sutures to provide normal blood circulation.

Mrs. Newton said the baby had been given regular doses of digitalis, powerful heart stimulant generally used as a standby drug for elderly persons with heart disease, from the time the child's operation.

"I guess we won't need that medicine anymore," Mrs. Newton said after the operation. "The doctors told me my baby will be all right from now on."

ICC Order Will Be Effective Saturday, May 4

Service Will Be Halted Between Harrisburg, Chicago

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special)—The New York Central Railroad was authorized by the Illinois Commerce Commission today to discontinue operation of passenger trains Nos. 462 and 463 between Chicago and the Illinois-Indiana state line and Harrisburg.

The order becomes effective at 12:01 a. m. (CST) Saturday, May 4.

The Commission order culminates a study of nearly eight years. The company filed its petition to discontinue the two trains in July 1949 but did not push the case until nearly four years later, March 1953, when it renewed its request.

This request was denied and the road then advised the Commission

NO INFORMATION YET ON MAIL SERVICE

(There was no information available on how mail service will be handled on the route now serviced by the train. However, it is believed that the mail will be trucked between Harrisburg and some point on the line to the north.)

that it would stay its denial, that it would launch an effort to improve service to attract patronage and determine public support.

In its order today the Commission agreed the railroad had substantially complied with a Commission improvement program, but agreed that despite the improvement, it had failed to increase or even maintain the average number of customers using the trains daily.

Order Freight Service

The Commission, although authorizing the discontinuance of the two trains in Illinois, required that the railroad concurrently with the discontinuance and for public convenience and necessity, maintain an adequate overnight substitute less than carload lots freight and freight service between the communities now served and Chicago be established and maintained.

The order pointed out that on December 14, 1956, the Public Service Commission of Indiana authorized the company to discontinue the two trains in Indiana.

Continuing the Commission order says:

"Petitioner owns and operates no railroad line within the state of Illinois between Danville and Chicago and its discontinuance in Indiana would permit the petitioner to limit operation within Illinois to between Danville and Harrisburg only, and on the basis of the record, public convenience and necessity would not support an order requiring the continued said trains between such points only, inasmuch as the trains would no longer provide direct overnight service to and from Chicago for the communities along the line."

The commission order said the railroad had had to spend $153,000 in out of pocket expenses on the two trains in a four month period in 1956 while revenue from the trains was only $117,000.

But a New York Central users committee had argued before the commission that the railroad had not made any serious efforts to improve service.

Indoor-Outdoor Projects

April showers bring May flowers is an old adage; the same can be said for picnics and the first outings with your families.

April, a time for answering those "Why, Daddy?" questions youngsters ask about flowers and plants. Plant an indoor garden so that the youngsters can observe growing plants and flowers! Fill several egg shells with rich dirt—
there should be plenty after Easter—and plant a geranium seed in each, one for each member of the family. Place the egg shell flower pots near the window to get sunlight. Each child can be responsible for the planting and watering. Watch to see whose plant comes up first and blossoms first.

Illinois Swine Growers, Day Apr. 16

The 1957 Swine Growers' Day has been set for April 16 on the University of Illinois campus at Urbana.

D. E. Becker, chairman of the 24th annual event, says the program will be directed toward helping swine growers cut costs in producing high-quality, meat-type hogs.

A full morning program has been arranged, starting at 10:30
a. m. in the University Auditorium. Topics for discussion include
"Levels of Feeding Breed Sows
and Gilts," "Does Limited Feeding Affect Carcass Quality?" "Free-Choice and Complete Rations on Pasture and Drylot," "Levels of Oats in Rations for 100-Pound
Pigs" and "Programs for Selecting Meat-Type Hogs."

Featured speakers in the afternoon will discuss "Which Way in the Hog Business—Boom or Bust?" "Modern Pork Merchandising," and "A Hog Program That Works for Me."

Inspection of the University Swine Farm and the experimental work currently in progress will get under way at 8:00 a. m.

The Block and Bridle Club will serve a barbecued porkchop lunch
on at noon.

Preservation of Acreage History for Wheat Allotments

Herman Driskell, chairman of the Saline County ASC committee, states that farmers who have un-derplanted their acreage allotment for wheat may retain the history of their farms for allotment purposes under the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation program.
Farmers who wish to preserve
this past acreage history for future acreage allotments must notify the county ASC office of their desires by signing and filing a proper request form.

In 1956, if 75 percent of the acreage allotment on a farm was planted to wheat, the farm would receive full credit in history for planting the full allotment. For 1957, however, to receive full credit the entire allotment must have been planted to wheat or placed in the wheat Acreage Reserve for 1957 except that if the landlord or tenant signs the proper request form on or before May 1, 1957 the farm will be given credit for planting the entire allotment even though no land was planted to wheat or put into acreage reserve
for wheat.

An endeavor is being made to advise each old wheat producer of this requirement through use of an individual letter.

SIU Country Column

By Albert Meyer

The busy honeybees have important functions in the whole scheme of nature. One of their more vital contributions is that of cross-pollination in certain flowering plants—a task that is performed incidentally in gathering
pollen and nectar for manufacturing honey and beeswax.

Blossom time is near in southern Illinois for the cherry, peach, plum, and pear trees. Within a few weeks thereafter extensive apple orchards will be showering colorful mantles over the hills and valleys.
When this season arrives, honeybees will appear on the scene if the days are warm and the wind is still. By pausing quietly for a moment or two any person visiting a blossoming orchard on such a day may hear the steady hum
of busy bees.

Dr. James Mowry, horticulturist
and superintendent of the Illinois Horticultural Experiment Station
in Carbondale, says that honeybees are credited with 80 to 90 percent of the pollen transfer in fruit orchards. The deciduous fruit trees are good sources of pollen for honeybees, but little honey is stored from fruit blossoms because the humidity usually is rather high during the blossoming season,
and the bee colonies are not yet
up to full storing strength so early in the season.

The fruit variety characteristics influence pollination. It is necessary that they produce good pollen grains and egg cells which will develop strong seeds. Cross-pollination usually results in stronger seeds and larger, more symmetrical fruit. For bees to do their work best it is important that the blossom periods of fruit varieties overlap.
It is important that the grower
plant varieties that will be compatible for cross-pollination.

The amount of nectar produced by the variety is influenced by the structure and the position of the nectar glands in the flower as well as by its physiological factors. The amount and concentration of nectar is affected by the humidity, the rate of evaporation, and the flowers.

It may be pointed out that not all varieties of fruit blossoms attract honeybees to the same extent. The amount and the chemical composition of the pollen is an important attracting factor. The time of blossoming and the competition available from other flowering plants will determine how much attention the bees will give fruit blossoms.

Weather conditions during the blossoming periods have an important bearing on the activity of bees, and, consequently, on how effective will be pollination. Air temperature affects bee activity.
At 60 degrees there is sufficient moving about for pollination, but bees flights are much better and more far-reaching at a temperature of 70 degrees.

Honeybees need a day with little or no wind for maximum activity. When the wind velocity is as much as 15 miles per hour, bee activity is reduced greatly. It ceases entirely when the velocity reaches 25 miles per hour. Rain also will stop bee flight, but the insects will be fairly active with high humidity which stimulates nectar secretion.

Bumblebees would be better pollenizers because they fly at lower temperatures and in stronger winds than do honeybees, but their number is too limited for the great job of pollination.

A number of commercial apple orchardists rent hives of bees from beekeepers for use in orchards during the blossoming period. This provides additional income for the beekeeper and is a valuable service to the fruit grower. Beekeepers take care of transporting the hives to and from the orchards.
The usual recommendation is one strong hive of bees for each acre of fruit trees.

Three or four days of good flying weather are needed for bees to become accustomed to their surroundings when moved to a new location. At first they will work near the hive, but from a long-established hive the bees may range outward to more than one and one-half miles to collect pollen and nectar. A bee usually visits only one species of plant on a particular trip but will visit many blossoms in a restricted area.

Value of Farm Land Reaches All-Time High

WASHINGTON (U)—The value of farm land has reached an all-time high in a period when farm income was skidding downward,
the Agriculture Department reported today.

Farm real estate values on Nov.
1 were 143 per cent of the 1947-49
average value—a new record high.
This increase occurred while prices received for farm products and realized net income of farm operators were dropping from the postwar high level.

By 1955, farm income had declined 25 per cent from the 1951
all-time high. This trend was reversed slightly in 1956 when farm income went up 4 per cent. Except for a brief halt in 1954, the value of farmland has increased steadily to its present high mark.

The department said the combined effect of other forces, both within and without agriculture, has been strong enough to offset the effect of reduced farm income on land values.

The strongest of these forces
within agriculture has been the demand from existing farmers for additional land with which to enlarge their present operations.
Such purchases have become increasingly numerous in recent years, rising from 25 per cent of the total in 1950 to more than one-third of all purchases during the year ended March 1, 1956. They have been most important in the wheat and central corn belt states.
The department said the soil bank program is a more recent development that will influence the market for farmland, but that its full effects are not yet apparent.
The department noted that the

Judge Clears Way for Sale of Hodge's Hotel

SPRINGFIELD — Circuit Court Judge De Witt S. Crow Friday cleared the way for sale of ex-State Auditor Orville Hodge's swank apartment hotel to a Miami man.

Crow vacated his earlier order that the Ft. Lauderdale hotel be sold to the Michigan Typesetting Corp., Detroit, for $522,500.

Crow's new order, which he is expected to sign Monday, allows the hotel to be sold to C. A. Pitts, of Miami, who submitted a bid of $575,000 for the property. The order also allows the State of Illinois to seek higher bids.

Proceeds from the sale of the property will go as partial restitution for the money Hodge looted from the state's treasury while he was state auditor.

He is now serving a prison term for his defalcations.

Pitts, in submitting his bid to the state said he would also assume responsibility for the presence of Mrs. Margaret C. Hodge, who is residing in the hotel's penthouse. He added that he would not require the state to oust her.

Morris Shenker, St. Louis, who represents both Mrs. Hodge and Pitts, said the actual difference in the two sale prices would amount to about $100,000 because the state will get rents paid by hotel guests during the top-prices winter vacation period if Pitts' bid is accepted.

"I just decided to have it taken care of now," he said.

Admiring Fan Leaves $45,000 To Disc Jockey

MORRISON, Ill. (U.P.) — A disc jockey today stood to inherit $45,000 left him by an admiring fan, provided that her relatives were not successful in breaking her will.

The late Miss Jesse Wilger bequeathed her $90,000 estate evenly between an ex-Sterling, Ill., disc jockey, William Schneider Jr., and a funeral home operator, Oliver Melvin, also of Sterling.

The will stipulated that none of Miss Wilger's property be leased, rented or sold to either of her two brothers and two sisters.

The relatives, Lyman and Russell Wilger, Mrs. Ima Oncken and Mrs. Lepra Mass, all of the Morrison area, contended that while their sister was a close friend of the undertaker, she had never met the record spinner.

Schneider, now of Chicago, admits that he never met Miss Wilger face-to-face. He said he only chatted with her over the phone and played record requests of hers on his broadcasts.

The brothers and sisters will contest the will of their late sister in a jury trial set for April 22.

Shuman Attacks Federal Aid To Education

CHICAGO — The president of the American Farm Bureau has denounced federal aid to education as the first step towards "federal intervention in the operation of our public school systems."

Charles B. Shuman Friday night accused the Eisenhower administration of wanting to "force through school construction aid." He said local communities which have spent "unprecedented sums" to improve school conditions in areas throughout the U. S. can meet their problems without "federal assistance and federal controls."

Shuman said the Farm Bureau Federation, which represents farm families, will recommend a $400 million slash in the outlay for agriculture be included in the bureau's requests that $6 billion be lopped off the "swollen $71 billion federal budget."

"Jesus Faces The Cross"

Matthew 26:26-29; 36-46

MEMORY VERSE: "O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt." (Matt. 26:39)

INTRODUCTION: Jesus knew that the cruel Cross awaited him just a few hours away. He had known this all his life, but since the transfiguration in the presence of Peter, James and John, and his conversation with Moses and Elias, "he set his face stedfastly toward Jerusalem."

Jesus wanted to show his disciples a picture of things to come. He wanted to prepare them for the events immediately ahead. While having fellowship with them, and breaking bread with them, he gave them a vivid picture of his coming death.

This was during the last real observance of the Passover Feast. It became the first observance of the Lord's Supper. It is very doubtful that the disciples knew that they were observing the last Passover Feast and the initial Lord's Supper at that moment.

I. WITH HIS DISCIPLES

(vv. 26-29)

At the Lord's table there is fellowship and spiritual strength to be found. Just as those Apostles were being told of his approaching death, we are told that he did die for us. At the Lord's table there is still fellowship with him after almost two thousand years. As we see the broken bread and the unfermented juice of the grape, we are reminded of his broken body and shed blood. Yes, we are reminded of his sacrificial death for our sins.

II. JESUS WAS LONELY

(vv. 36-38; 40-43)

The Garden of Gethsemane overlooks the city of Jerusalem. While observing the Lord's Supper, Judas left to go out and betray Jesus. This left eleven disciples with Jesus. He took these eleven up to Gethsemane for a prayer meeting. Eight were left out at the edge of the garden, while Peter, James and John were taken further inside.

Jesus stationed these three and went about a stone's throw further to be alone to commune with the Father.

The Apostles were to "watch," but they fell asleep. In the hour that Jesus needed them most, they slept. My! how lonely must have been our Lord that night!

III. JESUS' PRAYER

(vv. 39, 42, 44)

We sometimes speak of surrendering our will to the will of God. We speak of denying self. Here Jesus sets the highest example of self-denial and unconditional surrender that may be found anywhere. "... nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt." "Never man spake as this man." This is self dedication to God's will at its highest. Jesus had always done the will of the Father. At this moment the realization of what it would mean for all the sin of mankind to sweep across his soul became a real burden. "Nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt," he prayed.

IV. THE BETRAYAL

(vv. 45-46)

After returning three times and finding the Apostles asleep, Jesus said: "Rise, let us be going; behold he is at hand that doth betray me." Our Lord was soon to be crucified according to God's will. He was to finish the work that he had come to accomplish. He was to make the plan of salvation secure. But, oh! the pang of heart he must have suffered when he thought that one of the Twelve should betray him to the enemies. Surely he feels the same today every time one of his followers betrays him.

CONCLUSION

(vv. 39-42)

God heard and answered the prayer of Jesus in his lonely hour. Take heart, dear friend. God, also, hears your prayer in your hours of loneliness, sorrow and trial. It remains for you, too, to pray: "Not as I will, but as thou wilt." What a wonderful Saviour is Jesus, our Lord!

SYMBOL

Legend has it that, long ago, the dogwood came into bloom on Calvary and that, afterwards, a cross was implanted into the flower itself, to remain for all time. You can see it if you look closely, rust brown against the white of each individual blossom.

Many of us carry crosses, faint like the dogwood's emblem but with us, nevertheless. Somehow, in this Lenten season, we become particularly conscious of them and of our need for help—a certain kind of help, that can be found only through the things we learn in Church.

The Church doesn't pretend to banish our cares and woes. But, its teachings realistically consider the experiences of life itself. No matter what our personal cross may be, we seem able to bear its burden with more strength.

Lent is a wonderful time in which to begin making church-going a regular part of your life—if you haven't already.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Snead Holds Two-Stroke Lead Over Demaret in Masters Stretch Drive

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—It sounded like an old story in the Masters Golf Tournament today with the only two three-time winners chasing each other down the stretch—but Sam Snead had two strokes and two years over Jimmy Demaret.

Snead, playing a perilous game that saw him recoup from a double-bogey with a daring eagle for a second round 68, led the field with 140 after 36 holes. Demaret, whose only throw-back to his former carefree self was a pair of kelly-green shoes, attacked the exacting Augusta National course with precision Friday to score a two-under 70 and trail Snead by two strokes at 142.

But if he fooled the crowd with a conservative brown-and-tan attire to match his serious game, Demaret couldn't fool the calendar which marked him for a 47th birthday soon.

Snead Annually Consistent

Snead, at 45, had the advantage of being a consistent top man in recent years in this toughest of pressure tournaments. Demaret hadn't been in the low 24 since he won the Masters in 1950 and may have forgotten what it's like.

Both had major antagonists out of the way in their drive for top Masters money when Ben Hogan and Cary Middlecoff surprisingly failed to measure up to the 150 second-round qualifying score Friday. For the first time, the Masters field was cut to the low 40 players after the second day's play.

A cluster of challengers, including defending champion Jackie Burke, stood close behind Snead and Demaret.

Burke, who shot an even-par 72 was only one stroke behind Demaret at 143. Ed Furgol had an even-par 144 as did steady amateur Harvey Ward.

Doug Ford of Mahopac, N. Y., had 145 and a host waited a 146 to test the leaders.

With the field cut drastically, the tournament starts at noon today instead of the usual mid-morning teecup.

Hard-Earned Lead

Snead played his characteristic up and down game as he conquered wind and water for his hard-earned lead. The straw-hatted West Virginian almost counted him self out of the running when he drove into a lake on the par three 12th and took a penalty stroke and two-putt for a double-bogey.

But up against a south wind that caused Demaret to play safe for a par on the 15th, Snead drove into its face on his second shot to reach the green and hole a 25 foot putt for an eagle.

Demaret never came close to trouble as he breezed through the front nine with a three-under 33. But he tightened at the end and missed two putts that were less than a yard's length for a second-round 70.

Burke, who had the only opening round under par at 71, made one bogey and one birdie for a standard par 72.

Red Cross Benefit

Cage Games Tonight

At Carrier Mills High

A Red Cross benefit basketball program will be staged in the Carrier Mills high school gym this evening starting at 7:30. There will be two games played.

At 7:30 a game featuring two girl teams will be played.

At 8:15 p. m. a team composed of faculty members from both the Carrier Mills' high and grade schools will meet a team of CM alumni.

Appearing in the faculty lineup will be Carl Dillow, Carrier Mills high school principal, Bill Priest, Robert Aaron and "Kayo" Willis and Howard Street and Ron Culbreth from the grade school teaching staff.

There will be no admission charge, but a tub will be placed at the door for contributions. All proceeds will go to the Red Cross.

Greatest east-west distance across Texas is 773 miles from Newton county to El Paso county.

Baseball Team to Practice Sunday

If there is no more rainfall between now and Sunday afternoon the Harrisburg adult baseball team will practice on the VFW field at 1:30. Despite the heavy rains of this week the infield was in good shape this morning it was reported by team manager Charley Nelson.

The locals plan to open the 1957 season Sunday, April 21.

Veterans from last year who have expressed intention of playing again this season include Dick Romonosky, Bill McNew, Bob Dallas, "Flash" Griffith, Ron Zeigler, Harold Gulley, Don Wallace, Frank Logsdon and Jim Hay.

Anyone wishing to play with the team is invited to practice Sunday afternoon.

Teen Town Notes

Hi Ho, Teenereenos:

By now, I expect everyone has met our new director, Mrs. Hill. If not, be sure to go up and have a visit with her. She is especially anxious for new ideas from you—and has a lot of her own that we'll be hearing about soon. It will be wonderful to have her there every night and let's all make her feel welcome.

April means we are to begin paying 25c at the door unless we have our membership card. We've all been expecting this change and when you figure 25c a night against a 50c card which is good for six months, we've decided we'd better get our cards brought up to date pronto!

Mrs. Hill and the president of the Senior board visited the Teen Town at Herrin last Tuesday night. Mr. Russell, the director, invited visitors at any time. They will honor our membership cards and are open three nights a week and from 2 to 4:30 p. m. on Sundays. How about driving over some Sunday afternoon and bring some pointers home that we can use?

Does ANYONE have any idea where we can get a water cooler? We really need one. Remember how it was last summer....

Graduation plans are beginning to be discussed again. It should be a happy time, I suppose, but can you imagine Teen Town—or H. T. H. S.—without the Class of '57? Why can't they all take the 5-year plan? Hmmm—mm wonder how the K-9's will sound next year with nothing but a piano!

I'm sure that all the band and chorus members would like to thank the public for supporting the H. T. H. S. Music department at our music review last week. Mr. Cothrair and Mr. Schork told us that we have enough money for our New Orleans tour! Hooray!

As usual the chaperones were prompt and wonderful for March Beta Omega chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sent them and they were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McGehee, Mr. and Mrs. John Utter, Mrs. Robert Dorris, Mrs. Wayne Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Taylor, Mrs. James Stricklin, Mrs. W. D. Upchurch, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Slack, Mrs. J. F. Moore, Mrs. Bob Partain, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Humm, Dr. and Mrs. James Gaskins, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cain.

Aaron Paces Braves to Win Over Dodgers

By United Press

Hank Aaron's .417 average is making it clear today that there'll be no repetition of the spring slump that almost cost him the National League batting championship in 1956.

Aaron wallowed a homer and a single Friday to pace the Milwaukee Braves to a 5-1 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers and raise his runs batted in total to 22 for 17 games.

The Philadelphia Phillies raised their record to 12-2 against American League rivals when they scored six unearned runs in the seventh inning to down the New York Yankees, 6-4. Bob Turley shut out the Phillies with three hits for six innings before two errors got him into trouble.

The Cleveland Indians made it seven victories in their last eight games when they clubbed out a 12-9 decision over the New York Giants. The Indians hacked out 12 hits, including nine for extra bases, and received 13 walks from New York pitchers.

The Kansas City Athletics handed the Boston Red Sox their fifth straight loss and 12th in 18 games with major league rivals when they scored four eighth-inning runs for a 4-1 triumph.

Bob Rush, ticketed to be the Chicago Cubs' opening day pitcher, went nine innings for the first time Friday night and scored a 6-4 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Don Hoak continued his strong bid for a regular job when he wallowed a sixth-inning homer that gave the Cincinnati Redlegs a 1-0 decision over the Washington Senators.

Caddy Denies He's Too Slow For Eisenhower

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Willie Frank (Cemetery) Perteet, a sad-eyed shuffling caddy by day but a bouncy drummer boy at night, demands a "retraction" today as to why he was "dethroned" as golf-club chooser for President Eisenhower.

Cemetery has been succeeded by Slim Jackson, another Negro and assistant caddy master at the Augusta National Golf Course where the Masters Tournament is now being played. Mr. Eisenhower has a cottage on the course and will be here this month.

Ed Dudley, Augusta National pro, made the change. He said Cemetery was replaced because he was getting a little old and had a hard time keeping pace with Mr. Eisenhower, who tees up and shoots while his partners are still taking practice swings.

To this, Cemetery replies he is only 51 and can move just as fast as any caddy at Augusta. Cemetery says the President has never said a harsh word to him on the course although Mr. Eisenhower gets a little unhappy when he misses a shot, as what golfer doesn't, according to the caddy.

ter WHAT she says—I should know—I'm her brother!" Guess who? (S. R.)

And that, Dear Readers, winds up our letter for March except for this Safe-Driving thought: "Watch out for school children. Especially if they are driving!" Rudely Speaking, (that is) Lindereeno

Tony Anthony KO's Spieser

DETROIT (AP)—Tony Anthony, a former china-jawed middleweight who became a sensational light heavy in knocking out Chuck Spieser Friday night, today looked past his June 7 title fight with Archie Moore to Floyd Patterson.

Anthony, a Harlem musician with a real smooth ring glide, surprised everybody—even himself—by shaking up top-ranked light-heavy Spieser in the first, putting him down and almost out in the second and cleanly kayoing the balding favorite in the third.

A crowd of 8,651 paid $20,145 to watch the nationally televised fight.

Archie Moore, 43, fat and fading in the deep twilight of a boxing career that has had a long afternoon, has already signed to meet the winner in the same Olympia Stadium ring June 7.

How about heavyweight champ Patterson? "That's who we're after," said Ernie Braca, Anthony's manager.
